Yeah...

Han Ga-Ul
Lee Bom
Yun So-Hui
Gi Hang-Gyul

Now that I've seen it, the list is weird. I mean the names aren't listed alphabetically. Actually I don't see any order to the names.

If there is a pattern, if you can call that, there are groups of names who are close to each other.

I asked the teacher about it...

It was So-Hui who insisted on making this

She deemed the list could be used for those who aren't close but need to contact just in case.

But she probably made it for herself.

Well, you know those people who can't get closer to others but want to. They usually do it by weird ways.

Realizing how desperate she has become, I felt I should talk to her a bit, so I did just that.

So, you got friendlier to her, eh.

Yep ...

So, there was no other motive, yes ?

Of course, not !

I got it... Don't go shouting like that. Strong negative is positive after all... Anyway, I am hungry. Let's go eat tteokbokki.

Happy now?

Now that you know I wasn't trying to hit on So-Hui ...

? What? Why should I happy ?

But... you got angry when I was trying to get closer to her last time.

Hey, dude... Seriously, we've been together for a long time. You should know...

What are you saying?

Noe ... she likes you.

I know it's not my place to say this but pay more attention to her !

Do tell her about So-Hui also ...

Stop making me meddle in like this.

It wasn't ... you ?

The reason you got angry... it wasn't me ...?

What ?

Sorry ...

I can't eat tteokbokki with you today.

Aaaaaaaaaaaaaah.... Oh, man ...

Aaaaaaaaaaaaaaaah

So anyhow-nosing...
